

The Desert

The desert is so beautiful,
Don't you think so, too?
With its plants and animals,
It just inspires you.

Giant saguaros stand straight,
Strong and tall.
Like a gigantic skyscraper
That would never fall.

Little bunnies
Hop around
While snakes slither
Without a sound.

Falcons fly way up
High in the sky,
Looking for prey
With their watchful eye.

Everything plays
An important role
Keeping the desert beautiful
That's their goal.

Make a choice.
And make it right.
To make the deserts future
Hopeful and bright.
