

Sonoran Desert

A place animals may roam,
It's a place, it's a home.
Animals crawl, snakes slither
Plants grow, and plants wither.
A dry, hot, dusty palace,
Such a stable, perfect balance.
A place where feelings arise,
A place with beautiful sunny skies.
A place where hopes rise beyond the clouds,
A place that experiences thunderclouds.
A place where humans and animals live in peace,
Everything fits into one piece.
A place where animals and humans roam,
It's a place, It's our home.
